ANN HOUSER'S HOUSE

Men Spotted Who Have Been Visiting There.

THE RESORT WILL BE CLOSED

The Right Minded Men of East Liverpool Are Taking the Case in Hand—The Proprietress Expresses a Desire to Abandon the Shameful Life—If in Earnest, She Will Be Aided and Encouraged—Prominent Men of This City Have Been Regular Attendees at the Den—They May Be Named and Exposed, as They Have No Right to Associate With Decent Men and Women.

The social purity question is attracting much attention throughout the country at the present time, and good men and true women are coming to the front in an earnest, pushing and practical manner, apparently determined that there shall be something more than mere talk, gush and sentiment in this crusade for right and the protection of the home circle.

The thinking, reading and intelligent public will make note that reform is in the air—in the atmosphere. Good men and women have become disgusted with the laxity of moral obligations. Men break their marriage vows almost openly, and bad women do the same, and then dare to hope that society—and even the churches—will continue to receive and hold them in good standing. So out-breaking and bold has the evil become that it is effecting its own cure, as right thinking men and women have become utterly sick of it, and have determined to call a halt, and to say to such shameless and brazen creatures, "you shall not continue in such iniquity and hope to clasp my hand as friend or continue your visits to my hearth and home. It is said, and apparently on the very best of authority, that one special case in East Liverpool will receive attention in this line, a case where, through the weakness and sin of the man, and the boldness and sin of the woman, a once happy home has been broken up, and a once happy wife's life has been ruined and her heart broken, and it has been determined that the case shall be ventilated.

You ask what this has to do with the Ann Houser house? Simply this—that bad actions of the above character have forced our people to the determination to employ legal measures to close dens of vice in East Liverpool. Moral suasion will be first used, and when this fails, then will come the stern fiat of legal suasion.

A number of men and women, professors of Christianity, visited Ann Houser's home last night and sang and prayed with her. She was apparently much affected, joined in worship with them and finally professed conversion, and last evening joined the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city on probation. Mrs. Houser asserts that she is weary of the life of sin and shame she has been leading, and that, for the sake of her son, and her immortal soul, she will do her best to lead a clean and blameless life. True men and women will surround and help and encourage her, and if she prove to be sincere in her aim, she will not be left friendless.

For many nights during the past few weeks, the home of Ann Houser has been under close ward and watch, and this sentry duty has resulted in detecting many well known citizens visiting this reputed house of ill-fame. It is said that one official of the city of East Liverpool is so lost to shame that he has been visiting the place almost day and night.

At the conclusion of the services at the First Methodist Episcopal church last night, Reverend Huston announced that Mrs. Anna Houser would join the church on probation, and that he desired the members to come forward and extend to her the right hand of fellowship, and the invitation met with a generous response.

Men who have been in the habit of visiting at the house of Mrs. Anna Houser will do well to drop the habit at once, as those who have taken the case in hand are in earnest, and, desiring that Mrs. H. shall have a fair chance to live right and reform thoroughly, will see to it that those who annoy her will be punished to the utmost limit of the law.

And there are other places in town which have not been overlooked, but have been brought under the very closest surveillance; dens of infamy in the very center of our city, on Thompson hill, and elsewhere, and officers of the law, thoroughly disguised, have been in them all, and may, at the proper time, show up not only the inmates, but each and every man and woman who has been visiting there. The dens must and shall be cleaned and closed, and no influence, of business men or officials, shall prevent the accomplishment of this purpose.

OUR COUNCILMEN.

A Prominent Minister Reaches After Them Sharply.

There was a decided sensation created in the First Methodist Episcopal church Sunday morning when Reverend Huston, the pastor, criticized the actions of councilmen throughout the land, and gave some of the members of East Liverpool council a few raps beneath the belt, straightout from the shoulder. The speaker had been telling of his visit to Philadelphia, and of how a measure came up before the council there, where a movement was on foot advocating the opening of the council regularly with prayer, and the employment of a minister, at a stated salary, for that purpose. The members were astounded when a good and true member of the body, a consistent Christian man, warmly opposed the measure, asserting that it was not right to waste the people's money in any such manner; that such a sum could be saved by councilmen praying for themselves, and that it would be a good and sensible plan to set five minutes aside for prayer, on the part of the members of said council, before each session of that august body.

Commenting on this idea, Reverend Huston said that it might be a good thing for the council of East Liverpool to do some praying; that they might at least pray for such a degree of intelligence as would prevent them from having the streets and sidewalks torn up in the month of November, after letting all the fair weather of summer pass by, and compel the citizens to walk through the mud. Concluding his remarks, the minister said: "I am ashamed of them and of their actions in this particular, and some of the individual members of the councilmanic body are also ashamed of them."

This statement created quite a sensation and there was a subdued ripple of laughter throughout the congregation. One member of the church said, at the conclusion of the service: "Well, Huston had good sense to back him up. 'Tis a piece of foolishness and absolute nonsense to let all the good weather of the summer months pass by, and then tackle improvements in the season of rain, sleet, snow and mud. But, let me whisper to you. Do you know that the two members of council belonging to Huston's church are just in accord with him on this subject, and that they voted against improvements at this time? Let me tell you that Huston has a long head, and there's a heap of good sense and caution wrapped up in that same headpiece."

AT THE Y. M. C. A. ROOMS.

The Address of Reverend Taggart—Singing of Professor Gotschall.

Reverend Taggart addressed the meeting at the Young Men's Christian association rooms on Sunday afternoon, and took as his subject the idea of a clean and pure life; the avoidance of temptation, and the helping of others to overcome. He spoke of the terrible evils consequent upon the liquor traffic in this city, and of the number of brothels and houses of ill-fame besetting the pathway of our citizens and dragging the youth of East Liverpool down to ruin. Professor Gotschall delighted those present with an exquisitely rendered vocal solo. These meetings, held each Sunday at 4 o'clock, are very interesting and profitable, and you have a cordial invitation to attend them.

WATCH FOR ROOBACKS.

Republicans Should Keep Their Eye on This Fellow.

Voters and honest citizens should look out for roobacks. One Dr. J. W. Elder, of New York, has left Washington, D. C., for Ohio, in the interest of the Democracy, and as he is the man who sprung many falsehoods and done much illegal work in New York state in 1888, it is supposed, and on good grounds, that he is after no good in Ohio at this time. His objective point was Cincinnati, via Columbus. After consultations at the latter point co-workers of the doctor spread out to several other points, it is thought, to carry out their nefarious scheme.

THE CUBA MEETING

Many Citizens Discuss the Question.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Resolutions Drawn Up, a Copy of Which Will be Sent to the Secretary of State. A Number of Speeches Made by Prominent Citizens—Great Interest Manifested in the Movement.

In response to the proclamation issued by Mayor Gilbert, a large number of our representative citizens assembled at city hall on Saturday night to take action and discuss the question of freedom for oppressed Cuba. Mayor Gilbert was made president, and a number of vice presidents were selected. Will McCord acted as secretary. Colonel Watson was called upon, and delivered an eloquent and effective speech. W. V. Blake, A. H. Clark, Prof. W. L. Thompson, W. B. McCord and J. C. Deldrick also talked intelligently upon the question that was before the meeting. Colonel Watson was then appointed a committee of one to draw up a set of resolutions, and the following were submitted and adopted after one clause had been removed, viz: Inferring that the United States voted favor a protectorate being established over the island. The resolutions are as follows:

"Be it resolved that the sense of this meeting is expressed in the following: An island of the western hemisphere has for long years been oppressed by foreign tyrants, robbed of the wealth it has produced without any return in governmental benefits; its educational and social advantages discouraged and its people made subservient to unprincipled officials and for their luxurious support at a distant seat of government. One of the sun-kissed spots of the world that blossoms as the rose sends up its fragrance and products only to enrich non-residents, while its own people struggle in poverty and sorrow. This condition of affairs is contrary to American principles and spirit, and obnoxious to all mankind. For its declaration of true manhood and the right of self-government, Cuba is encompassed by a foreign fleet, and thousands of convict soldiers and hired assassins besiege and coerce patriotic people.

"Therefore, we, as American free-men, declare our sympathy for the people of Cuba, and that we believe in the inalienable right of all mankind to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and to deprive the people of Cuba of the wealth they produce to uphold a tottering throne and a profligate aristocracy is tyrannical, unholy and unjust.

"We pledge our moral support to the Cuban patriots, and hereby assert our belief that the government of the United States should recognize their rights as belligerents and invoke the authorities to take such action.

"We also hereby appeal to our government to give such encouragement and assistance to the people of Cuba in their struggle for freedom as may be consistent with liberal interpretation of international laws and usages; and to do this without any desire of acquisition or annexation in any form, and our only prayer is that Cuba may be free."

After the reading of the resolutions it was decided to send a copy of the same to the secretary of state, showing the amount of interest taken and sentiment displayed by the citizens of this vicinity. The interest manifested by those present proves conclusively that the people of this community are in full sympathy with any movement that will assist in aiding Cuba in breaking the bonds that bind her to a tyrannical government, and that she may succeed eventually in establishing her independence.

THE EAST END ROAD

Doctor Marshall Addresses the Citizen Voters.

CLAIMS 'TIS A GOOD FEATURE

The Doctor Wants to Furnish Employment to Labor, at Remunerative Wages, Appeals to Workingmen and Mechanics and Declares the Improvement Would be a Grand Outlet and Inlet for East Liverpool.

The question of the improvement of the East End road, by macadamizing, will come up for settlement tomorrow. The amount has been reduced from $27,000 to $13,600, and the advocates of the measure urge that the improvement is an absolute necessity to the East End, and that the granting of the bond issue will be a simple act of justice to the citizens of that part of East Liverpool. Further than this, they urge that it will be a great advantage to the city in the matter of communication with the farmers for miles around, and that this latter class will center upon our city, bringing in many thousands of dollars annually to our merchants, money which would otherwise be diverted to other points. Below will be found a communication from Doctor Marshall, president of city council. Read it carefully:

"To the Voters of East Liverpool:—Having learned that the voters, mechanics and working men of East Liverpool were under the impression that the special election for the issuing of $27,000 worth of bonds, for the construction of a highway between East End and the city proper, was a red laid scheme of the bosses to raise rents and bring into the city foreign labor, and thereby create a surplus of workmen, and a consequent decrease in the price paid for a day's wage, I embrace this present opportunity to show the utter absurdity of believing such bogie stories and will show the true in wardness of the contemplated improvement on which you will vote tomorrow, the improvement, however, to be in the shape of macadamizing, and the sum asked only $13,600. The men who have created the above impression are not by any manner of means the friends of labor and good wages, as the men who would be employed upon said improvement would be, (and will be in case you vote for the measure) as far as possible, taken directly from our city, and the wages paid to labor will be $1.50 per day, 15 cents better money per day than is at present paid to laborers in this city. One of the main objects of the improvement, aside from its necessity, and the grand advantage it will prove to communication, and as a means of ingress to and egress from our busy city, will be the furnishing of employment, at living wages, to all idle men who desire to secure work. And another feature, which will please the workmen of East Liverpool, is the fact that American workmen will be given the preference; citizens of the United States.

Hoping you will give this matter a fair consideration and do what you can for the advancement of public improvements and thereby the employment of unskilled workmen, I remain, Yours, etc., R. J. MARSHALL.

MAJOR DANE DEAD.

The Eloquent and Noted Orator Died at Sea.

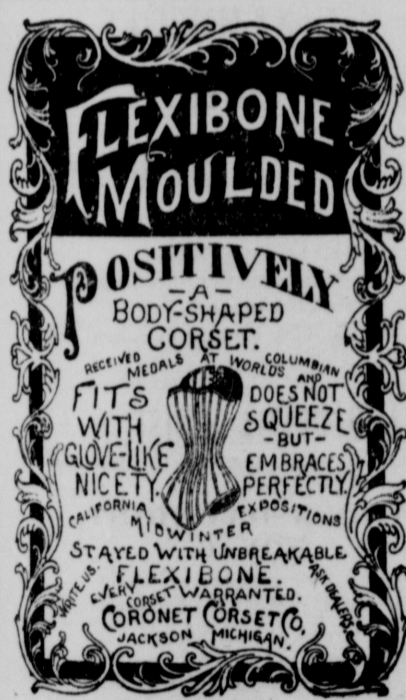

H. A. Weeks has just received word from the lecture bureau that Major Dane died at sea and was buried beneath the waves while enroute from Queensland to San Francisco. No particulars, other than that of his death, have been received up to the present time. Many hearts will be sad when they read this news. Major Dane was truly a gifted orator, and his wonderful description of the great naval battles of the rebellion has thrilled thousands of hearts throughout this great nation, and set pulses throbbing and glowing, while the people applauded to the echo the accounts of the heroism of the men who fought to save the nation. Major Dane is dead. God grant him a safe entrance to the port of peace, through Him who hath loved us and given His life for us.

Will Wed.

It is stated from a source of apparent authority that James Hilbert will soon take unto himself a bride. An estimable young society lady, it is said, will be the happy one. When asked if there is any truth in the above report, James simply shakes his head and makes a weak denial of the charge, but his friends insist this is the true state of affairs.

Will Dance.

A number of married and single folks are making preparations for a dance to be held at Frankfort Springs on Thursday evening. The party will go over in hacks.

THE EAST END ROAD

Doctor Marshall Addresses the Citizen Voters.

CLAIMS 'TIS A GOOD FEATURE

The Doctor Wants to Furnish Employment to Labor, at Remunerative Wages, Appeals to Workmen and Mechanics and Declares the Improvement Would be a Grand Outlet and Inlet for East Liverpool.

The question of the improvement of the East End road, by macadamizing, will come up for settlement tomorrow. The amount has been reduced from $27,000 to $13,600, and the advocates of the measure urge that the improvement is an absolute necessity to the East End, and that the granting of the bond issue will be a simple act of justice to the citizens of that part of East Liverpool. Below will be found a communication from Doctor Marshall, president of city council. Read it carefully:

"To the Voters of East Liverpool:— Having learned that the voters, mechanics and working men of East Liverpool were under the impression that the special election for the issuing of $27,000 worth of bonds, for the construction of a highway between East End and the city proper, was a deep laid scheme of the bosses to raise rents and bring into the city foreign labor, and thereby create a surplus of workmen, and a consequent decrease in the price paid for a day's wage, I embrace this present opportunity to show the utter absurdity of believing such bogie stories and will show the true inwardness of the contemplated improvement on which you will vote tomorrow, the improvement, however, to be in the shape of macadamizing, and the sum asked only $13,600. The men who have created the above impression are not by any manner of means the friends of labor and good wages, as the men who would be employed upon said improvement would be, (and will be in case you vote for the measure) as far as possible, taken directly from our city, and the wages paid to labor will be $1.50 per day, 15 cents better money per day than is at present paid to laborers in this city. One of the main objects of the improvement, aside from its necessity, and the grand advantage it will prove to communication, and as a means of ingress to and egress from our busy city, will be the furnishing of employment, at living wages, to all idle men who desire to secure work. And another feature, which will please the workmen of East Liverpool, is the fact that American workmen will be given the preference; citizens of the United States.

Hoping you will give this matter a fair consideration and do what you can for the advancement of public improvements and thereby the employment of unskilled workmen, I remain,

Yours, etc.,
R. J. MARSHALL.

The Eloquent and Noted Orator Died at Sea.

H. A. Weeks has just received word from the lecture bureau that Major Dane died at sea and was buried beneath the waves while enroute from Queensland to San Francisco. No particulars, other than that of his death, have been received up to the present time. Many hearts will be sad when they read this news. Major Dane was truly a gifted orator, and his wonderful description of the great naval battles of the rebellion has thrilled thousands of hearts throughout this great nation, and set pulses throbbing and glowing, while the people applauded to the echo the accounts of the heroism of the men who fought to save the nation. Major Dane is dead. God grant him a safe entrance to the port of peace, through Him who hath loved us and given His life for us.

Will Wed.

It is stated from a source of apparent authority that James Hilbert will soon take unto himself a bride. An estimable young society lady, it is said, will be the happy one. When asked if there is any truth in the above report, James simply shakes his head and makes a weak denial of the charge, but his friends insist this is the true state of affairs.

Will Dance.

A number of married and single folks are making preparations for a dance to be held at Frankfort Springs on Thursday evening. The party will go over in hacks.

SHOULD BE STOPPED.

The Practice of Throwing Water on the Streets a Nuisance.

On Saturday last the wife of a well known druggist was passing an up-town pottery in company with another lady when she was surprised by being covered with water thrown from the second story window of the plant. The lady was completely drenched, but as the water was clean no damage was done. The party throwing the water made the apology that he didn't look. A well known boss potter was not so fortunate however, he having been deluged with a pan of dish water while passing a boarding house on West Market street. These are not the only instances that could be cited but are sufficient to show that this practice should be stopped.

REPUBLICAN CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

A Short Session Held on Saturday Night.

The Republican central committee met in special session at the city hall on Saturday night to make final arrangements for conducting the election held on Tuesday next. The location of the polling booth in the First ward was changed from N. K. Burlingame's store on Calcutta road, owing to grading making it unfit for foot travel at present, to Windram's store, corner of Bank and Avondale streets. The inspectors and the challengers were appointed and other details attended to. There was a full attendance of members, all working energetically in the interest of the party.

TURN OUT.

VOTE TOMORROW.

DON'T miss your franchise.

VOTE the Republican ticket, without fail.

WORKINGMEN, mechanics and laborers, your bread and butter, your best interests and living wages, depends on the success of the Republican property.

CAST your ballot for Asa Bushnell and the entire Republican ticket. It is a ticket which means prosperity for not only the state of Ohio, but for every state in the grand republic, as the influence of the result in Ohio will be felt all over the nation.

GEORGE PEACH.

George Peach informs the management of the News Review that he cast his first ballot for Abraham Lincoln, that he has voted the Republican ticket ever since that time and will continue to do so just as long as the Republican party stands as it does now—the exponent of loyalty, love of country, protection to home and home industries, and the true and tried friend of the mechanics and workmen of the nation. He further states that he was not a candidate for the nomination to council in the Third ward; that he had absolutely refused to allow his name to be used in this connection, and that, despite his refusal, and while he was absent at Mc-Keesport, unwise and over zealous friends placed his name before the meeting at city hall as a candidate.
We are very glad to make this announcement, as we now know that the plot to defeat John J. Parinton was hatched by the Democracy, and that a two-for-five so-called Democratic leader was at the bottom of the whole thing; that he made the great mistake of imagining that cunning constitutes leadership and brains, and that, as usual, he was compelled to sup sorrow and suffer the humiliation of a defeat, by the snug number of
over two to one, and all this in the face of the fact that a good citizen was on the ticket of the party he is supposed to represent. The fact of the matter is that right thinking men are sick and tired of affiliation with the blundering Democracy and still more blundering, ignorant and unprin-ciple so-called leaders.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion that there is nothing as good for children troubled with colds or croup
as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having a gripe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure.

Isn't It Time

You bought that fall overcoat you've been promising yourself? It is.
Well, then, why not buy it? Can't afford it, you say; why, nonsense.
Have you seen the coats we sell at $7.00, $8.00, $9.00 and $10.00? No?
Then it's time you did. Perhaps you are one of those men who would rather do without a coat than wear a cheap one; but if we show you a garment that has the style and appearance of a high priced one for the cost of a low priced one, then we overcome the objection, don't we?
It's hard work to sell you a coat on paper, but come and see the coats and they'll sell themselves.

EMPLOYEES REFUSE TO GO OUT.

Debs Roasts the St. Paul Magnate and Accuses Him of Violating the Terms of Settlement of the 1894 Strike—Hill Fears No Trouble.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 4.—It was announced Saturday night that a general strike would go into effect on the Great Northern early Sunday morning, on account of the refusal of President Hill
to meet the mediation committee at St.
Paul. Investigation proved that a strike was ordered to take effect at that time, but the employees of the Montana Central have refused to take any part in the trouble, and they have announced that they will not strike under any consideration.

It is thought, however, there may be trouble on the main line east of Minot.
The employees on the Montana Central
in Montana have been circulating petitions on each branch that they have no grievances and no representative on the mediation committee. The petitions will be forwarded to President Hill at once.

A Woodstock (Ill.) special says: Eugene V. Debs has made the following statement with reference to the threatened strike on the Great Northern railway system: "The policy of the Great Northern company in relation to its employees is totally dishonest and disreputable. For several months a scheme has been in operation to disrupt the American Railway union, notwithstanding the solemn pledge of President Hill that no employee should be interfered with on account of his connection with the organization. The strike of April, 1894, resulted in an agreement between the company and

the union, which was affected May 1, under the auspices of a board of arbitration, composed wholly of merchants and manufacturers, and of which Charles A. Pillsbury was chairman.
Tremendous reductions, ranging from 10 to 40 per cent, had been made by the company and these were restored by the board. From that day to this the company has not lived up to its agreement one hour.

"Competent and trustworthy employees have been discharged again and again for no other reason than that they belonged to the union. Whether the employees strike or not will be determined by themselves. I am unable to foretell their decision. According to my advice the Great Northern company has already begun the hiring of thugs and ex-convicts at various points."

A St. Paul special says: President
Hill and General Manager Warren say that they have no reports indicating trouble of any sort among the employees along the line. They repeat their statements made the other day, taken upon the belief that the strike was over the right eye. The shooting is supposed to be the work of tramps, who have been making the lives of trainmen miserable and their occupation hazardous by acts of lawlessness.

A Fierce Fire Under Ground.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Nov. 4.—A spark
from a pipe which an employee was smoking has set fire to the hay in the mule stable in the Dorrance mine. The stable is 600 feet below the surface.
An alarm was sounded and a large number of miners fought the fire all night. Eighteen mules perished and other property to the value of $10,000 destroyed.

B. & O. FLYER WRECKED

The Cannonball Jumps the Track Near Wheeling.

TWO KILLED AND MANY INJURED.

A Broken Carwheel Flange Sent the Train Off a Bridge—A Babe Killed on Its Father's Knee and the Parents Escape Uninjured.

WHEELING, Nov. 4.—The worst railroad wreck in the immediate vicinity of Wheeling for many years occurred shortly before 10 o'clock Sunday morning at Elm Grove, five miles east, on the Pittsburgh division of the Baltimore and Ohio road. The Pittsburgh and Cincinnati express, commonly known as the cannon ball, jumped the track on a bridge over Wheeling creek, owing
to a broken flange on a wheel of the smoking car. The engine, tender and baggage car kept the track, while the mail car, smoker and Pullman parlor car went over a bank about 16 feet high. The day coach turned completely over, and the other two lay on their sides. The cars were completely demolished, seeming to have been thrown
some distance through the air.

So far only two deaths have happened. A woman, thought to be Mrs.
Miranda Hare of Kittanning, Pa., but not positively identified, owing to the way she was disfigured, jumped from the car and was instantly killed. The 8-months-old child of Lawrence Bartley of Pittsburgh was sitting on its father's lap when the accident occurred.
It was so badly injured that it died in a few minutes, while neither the father nor mother was hurt. They were coming to Wheeling to attend the funeral of a relative.

The exact number of injured is hard to get reliably. Nine were taken to the City and three to the Wheeling hospital, while a number are at homes near the scene of the accident. Ten or a dozen surgeons and the wrecking crew were summoned at once. "Not less than 10,000 people visited the scene of the wreck, the Wheeling and Elm Grove railroad running special excusion trains, all crowded. Of those who were hurt several will die.

The killed were: Mrs. Miranda Hare, Kittanning, Pa., and 8-months-old child of Lawrence Bartley of Allegheny, Pa.

The injured, so far as they can be found, are: Ella Vance, Wheeling, spine probably broken, may die; C. J.
Garvey, oil operator, Marietta, O., head crushed and back wrenched, will probably die; W. N. Rose, Chicago, travels for Holbein Art company, right arm broken; Michael J. Mahoney, Mc-Keesport, Pa., face cut and mashed;
Mrs. M. J. Mahoney, face cut and hip
hurt; E. W. Gilbert, Sharpsburg, Pa., right arm broken, head cut badly; J. N.
elbow broken; William Richardson, Sharpsburg, Pa., cut and bruised back
and head; James W. Foster, Beaver Falls, Pa., right foot broken, face and back cut; W. J. Chapman, West Bridgewater, Pa., right leg and hand broken; Charles Harkins, Altoona, Pa.,
right temple and scalp cut; P. R.
Rahn, Philadelphia, badly cut and bruised; George Perkins, conductor Pullman car, head cut, hip bruised;
George Crouse, 14 Charters street, Allegheny City, scalp wounds; Mrs.
George Crouse, knee dislocated; Mrs.
Dr. A. F. Stiel, Forty-fourth street, Pittsburgh, slightly hurt; Jacob Zulauf, 22 Albert street, Pittsburg, left arm dislocated; Albert Gaus, 68 Frankstown avenue, Pittsburgh, legs cut and bruised; Richard Gaus, same address, both legs badly bruised; Mrs.
Watts, Wheeling, elbow dislocated;
Louis Schuchert, 120 Howard street, Pittsburgh, head cut and bruised, badly hurt; Prof. J. M. Frasher, principal Wheeling Business college, head and left arm cut and bruised; W. O. Hawley, Allegheny, face and nose crushed, arm cut; Mrs. Dixon, Pittsburgh, badly cut and back wrenched; Maud Vance, internal injuries and severe cuts; Mrs.
Malone, Allegheny, head cut, hurt in chest; J. D. Stanton, mail agent, chest, shoulder and leg cut, bruised;

crushed; Perry Parker, colored, porter Pullman car, Cincinnati, cut on face;

located; Mrs. Starr, daughter and granddaughter, painfully cut, Allegheny; M. Dixon and wife, Pittsburgh, painfully cut; John Renschler, Pittsburg, head and neck cut; C. M. Kiskaddon, Columbia, Pa., head bruised;

STARVATION THREATENS THE WHALERS.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—The schooner Rosario arrived from the Arctic ocean, bringing 3,000 pounds of bones, the residue of a catch of five whales.
She brings confirmation of the news of the Rosario it looks as if the entire fleet would be caught in the ice. The steam whalers are amply provided with stores with which to spend another winter in the ice, but the sailing vessels are poorly supplied and starvation stares them in the face.

AMERICAN SHOES IN GERMANY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Consul Stephan, writing from Annaberg to the state department reports the developments of a keen competition in the shoe trade of Berlin due largely to the effort to introduce foreign goods into the market. He says that a Boston manufacturer has established a house
there and that the local makers find it hard to compete with the American goods.

Fighting a Fire in Indiana.

WHITING, Ind., Nov. 4.—The prairie fires which have been burning south of here for the past two weeks, have finally reached the border of this place.
The alarm of fire was given and the neighboring fire departments were called out and have been fighting the flames. About 2,000 acres between here and Hammond have been burned.
Much of this territory is a kind of peat
and is still burning.

WILL RULE AR AR ENIA.

The New Commission Announced—Armenians and Turks Still Fighting.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—The official announcement of the composition of the Armenian commission of control is as follows: President Cheik Effendi,
of the court of appeals; Djemal Bey,
manager of the bank of agriculture;
Caratheodori Effendi and Abdullah
Bey, councillors of state; Johanno Effendi, procurer of the imperial court of accounts; Djelal Bey, of the court of appeals; Dilber Effendi, legal councillor to the minister of finance.

Official telegrams received here state that several persons were killed and wounded at Diarbekir on Friday during some riots arising from an Armenian attack upon the mosques. Some Zeikonn Armenians attacked Lieutenant Hassan Agha, who with his wife and children was traveling to Marash, and killed the whole family and rifled the bodies of the victims.

The American missionaries in Bitlis have again complained to United States Minister Terrell that they are in imminent danger. Mr. Terrell and
Hon. Michael Herbert, the British charge d'affaires, have therefore again made a demand upon the porte to insure the protection of the Americans.

It is rumored that the Turks are still pillaging the Armenian shops in Erze-room. Two hundred corpses have already been counted, victims of the recent riot.

The Armenian population of Anatolia are sending delegates to petition M.
Neldoff, the Russian Ambassador, to request Russia to temporarily occupy

TO DISFRANCHISE THE NEGRO.

Senator Tillman Made Surprising Admissions In His Speech.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 4.—Senator Tillman's unparalleled indictment of the negro race in the constitutional convention was addressed to the north
as a defense of what South Carolina proposes to do in order to maintain white supremacy, in spite of the constitution of the United States. But the most astonishing thing about this great speech was its frank admissions.

"Do we intend to commit fraud under our new suffrage plan?" he said.
"I deny it. Fraud is illegal; we do not propose to do anything illegal. But the 'understanding' clause will for two years allow the white registration officer to decide whether an illiterate shall vote or not. We intend no fraud, only unfairness, as it were; simply partiality or discrimination, nothing more. No white man will lose his vote.
That is what I meant when I said I would drink from the poisoned chalice for two years and then throw it away forever."

FRICK'S BIG DEAL.

His Company Buys Out the McClure Coke
Company's Property.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—The H. C. Frick Coke company has bought the property of the McClure Coke company and has almost complete control of the great Connellsville coke industry.
For about $4,000,000 the McClure company has disposed of its entire interest in the Connellsville region, consisting of about 2,500 coke ovens and large coal properties in Fayette and Westmoreland counties.

No Naval Construction at Detroit.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Secretary Herbert has rendered his decision as to the award of contracts for the six new gunboats authorized to be built by the last congress. They go to different firms throughout the country, but none
to Detroit, the president sustaining Secretary Herbert's decision that it would be a violation of the treaty with Great Britain to build war vessels on the lakes.

Negroes and Whites Fight.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 4.—In the outskirts of Clarksville, a mob of negroes has attacked four white men and a gen-
white, about 60 years old, was stabbed twice, dying instantly. One other white man was stabbed and badly injured. Two negroes were also hurt.
Three negroes are in jail charged with the murder.

The Katahdin a Failure.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—General Hyde
of the Bath Iron works announces that the 17 knots required by contract. The navy department is endeavoring to find some means by which rejection of the boat can be avoided.

Ten Heretics Burned.

PACHUCA, Mexico, Nov. 4.—News comes from Texacapa, a small town inhabited by Indians and mestizos (half-breeds), that ten persons have been burned there as heretics by order of the military town judge.

5,000 Men Join Cuban Rebels.

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 4.—Passengers arriving from Cuba say that fully 5,000 men have joined the insurgents from

the trustees.

Burns was elected to succeed himself on the first ballot. Paul St. Peter, the did not receive a majority over all candidates on the first ballot, and another vote will be taken.

TURN OUT.

VOTE TOMORROW.

DON'T miss your franchise.

VOTE the Republican ticket, with-

borers, your bread and butter, your
best interests and living wages, depends on the success of the Republican property.

CAST your ballot for Asa Bushnell
and the entire Republican ticket. It is a ticket which means prosperity for
every state in the grand republic, as
the influence of the result in Ohio will
be felt all over the nation.

GEORGE PEACH.

George Peach informs the management of the NEWS REVIEW that he
cast his first ballot for Abraham Lincoln, that he has voted the Republican
industries, and the true and tried
friend of the mechanics and work-
that he was not a candidate for the
nomination to council in the Third
to allow his name to be used in this connection, and that, despite his refusal, and while he was absent at Mc-Keesport, unwise and over zealous
friends placed his name before the
meeting at city hall as a candidate.
We are very glad to make this announcement, as we now know that the plot to defeat John J. Purinton was hatched by the Democracy, and that
leader was at the bottom of the whole thing; that he made the great mistake of imagining that cunning constitutes leadership and brains, and
that, as usual, he was compelled to sorrow and suffer the humiliation of a defeat, by the snug number of
face of the fact that a good citizen
supposed to represent. The fact of the matter is that right thinking men
the blundering Democracy and still
more blundering, ignorant and unprin-
ciple so-called leaders.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of McKay, O., is of the opinion
that there is nothing as good for
as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He
has used it in his family for several
keeps a bottle of it in the house. After
troubled with a severe cough. He
used other remedies without benefit
and then concluded to try the chil-
soon effected a permanent cure.

Have you seen the coats we sell at $7.00, $8.00, $9.00 and $10.00? No?
Then it's time you did. Perhaps

EMPLOYEES REFUSE TO GO OUT.

Accuses Him of Violating the Terms
Fears No Trouble.

BUTTE, MONT., Nov. 4.—It was announced Saturday night that a general strike would go into effect on the Great Northern early Sunday morning, on account of the refusal of President Hill
to meet the mediation committee at St.
strike was ordered to take effect at that
time, but the employees of the Montana Central have refused to take any
part in the trouble, and they have announced that they will not strike under
any consideration.

It is thought, however, there may be
trouble on the main line east of Minot.
The employees on the Montana Central
in Montana have been circulating petitions on each branch that they have no
grievances and no representative on the
mediation committee. The petitions will be forwarded to President Hill on Sunday.

A Woodstock (Ills.) special says: Engine V. Debs has made the following statement with reference to the threatened strike on the Great Northern railway system: "The policy of the Great Northern company in relation to its

JAMES J. HILL.

employees is totally dishonest and dis-
reputable. For several months a scheme has been in operation to disrupt the American Railway union, notwithstanding the solemn pledge of
be interfered with on account of his
agreement between the company and
the union, which was affected May 1,
under the auspices of a board of arbi-
Charles A. Pillsbury was chairman.
Tremendous reductions, ranging from 10 to 40 per cent, had been made by the company and these were restored by
the board. From that day to this the
ment one hour.

"Competent and trustworthy employees have been discharged again and again for no other reason than that they belonged to the union. Whether
the employees strike or not will be determined by themselves. I am unable to foretell their decision. According
to my advice the Great Northern company has already begun the hiring of
points."

Hill and General Manager Warren say
that they have no reports indicating trouble of any sort among the employees along the line. They repeat
that the employees of the road have made no complaints and have sent assurances that complaints made in their name are at this time unauthorized.

Death Doesn't Scare Holmes.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—H. H.
Holmes, the convicted murderer of Benjamin F. Pitelzel, does not evidence the slightest any outward signs of breaking down. With death actually before him now he is the same cool and calm Holmes. Extra care has been taken that the man shall not frustrate the efforts of the prosecution by committing suicide. A double guard has been placed on his cell, and will remain there until he has paid the penalty of his crime. He is still in the untried department, but as soon as the death sentence is pronounced he will be taken to a cell in "murderer's row." Holmes was convicted of murder in the first degree Saturday night.

FOUR LIVES LOST.

A Row of Buildings Destroyed by Fire in New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Several lives were lost in the fire on the second floor of the six-story brick building at 7 Pelham street, owned by Weil & Meyer and used as a sweatshop. Three charred and almost unrecognizable bodies have been taken from the ruins, and one man who jumped to save his life from the flames was so injured that he died in the Governor's hospital, whither he was taken, suffering from a fractured skull.

The dead are: Jacob Shapiro, watchman, found in the ruins, 45 years old; Isaac Penson, found in the ruins; unknown man, found in the ruins; Morris Dirshauer, aged 40, who jumped from a second-story window and died in Governor's hospital of a fractured skull.
The fire originated from some unknown cause on the second floor of No.
7 and spread with great rapidity through that building and those immediately adjoining. Five alarms were sent in, and, although a large number of engines were playing on the flames for hours, nothing could be done to save the structures themselves and the four buildings, Nos. 3, 5, 7 and 9, were completely destroyed.

The fire caused terror in the thickly populated neighborhood and people ran out of their homes into the streets in multitudes to escape the impending destruction of their homes, which they feared. The buildings burned were filled with sweatshops. The total loss was about $75,000.

YELLOW FEVER AND CHOLERA.

Reports on the Ravages of These Diseases in Cuba and Japan.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Reports to the Marine hospital service show the continued prevalence of yellow fever at Havana. There were 160 cases and 43 deaths from the disease from Oct. 10 to 24. A large percentage of the deaths are in the military hospitals. During the week ending Oct. 24, out of 23 deaths 13 were soldiers in the hospital.

The ravages of cholera in Japan are shown in the abstract of cases and deaths up to Sept. 12. The main points of the outbreak are Osaka, 6,505 cases, 4,618 deaths; Hiogo, 3,430 cases, 2,533 deaths; Hiroshima, 3,624 cases, 2,664 deaths; Kagawa, 2,029 cases, 1,178 deaths; Tokyo, 2,008 cases, 1,301 deaths; Kioto, 1,089 cases, 1,309 deaths; Nagasaki, 1,610 cases, 1,103 deaths; Miyagi, 1,470 cases, 869 deaths; Tattori, 1,014 cases, 659 deaths; Yamaguchi, 1,093 cases, 1,385 deaths; Yehime, 1,326 cases, 816 deaths; Fukuoka, 1,877 cases, 1,143 deaths.

LOVERS FIGHT A DUEL.

A West Virginia Girl Shoots a Jealous Sweetheart Who Tries to Kill Her.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 4.—In the village of Eagle, Ervin Hostley and Bettie Shields, who have been lovers, fell out on account of Hostley's jealousy. She was seen by him on the street with another man the previous day.

He demanded an explanation, which was given, but which did not suit him. He fired at her, the bullet cutting her neck slightly. Bettie used her pistol freely in the street duel that ensued, shooting three times, and each bullet taking effect. Hostley is dying

Conductor Shot From Ambush.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 4.—Richard Burnett, one of the best-known conductors on this division of the Lake Shore railroad, has been shot from ambush, a mile east of this city, and seriously but not fatally injured. The conductor put his head out of a caboose window to look for signal lights when fire upon the bullet taking effect just over the right eye. The shooting is supposed to be the work of tramps,
who have been making the lives of
trainmen miserable and their occupation hazardous by acts of lawlessness.

A Fierce Fire Under Ground.

from a pipe which an employee was
smoking has set fire to the hay in the
mule stable in the Dorrance mine. The
stable is 600 feet below the surface.
An alarm was sounded and a large number of miners fought the fire all night. Eighteen men perished and
destroyed.

B. &amp; O. FLYER WRECKED

The Cannonball Jumps the

A Broken Car-wheel Flange Sent the Train Off a Bridge—A Babe Killed on Its Father's Knee and the Parents
Escape Uninjured.

WHEELING, Nov. 4.—The worst railroad wreck in the immediate vicinity
of Wheeling for many years occurred
shortly before 10 o'clock Sunday morning at Elm Grove, five miles east, on the Pittsburg division of the Baltimore and Ohio road. The Pittsburg and Cincinnati express, commonly known
as the cannon ball, jumped the track
to a broken flange on a wheel of the
baggage car kept the track, while the
mail car, smoker and Pullman parlor
car went over a bank about 16 feet high. The day coach turned complet-ly over, and the other two lay on their sides. The cars were completely de-
some distance through the air.

So far only two deaths have hap-
Miranda Hare of Kittanning, Pa., but
way she was disfigured, jumped from
the car and was instantly killed. The 8-months-old child of Lawrence Bartley of Pittsburg was sitting on its father's lap when the accident occurred.
a few minutes, while neither the father nor mother was hurt. They were com-
of a relative.

to get reliably. Nine were taken to
hospital, while a number are at houses
a dozen surgeons and the wrecking
crew were summoned at once. "Not
less than 10,000 people visited the scene of the wreck, the Wheeling and Elm
grove railroad running special excusion trains all crowded. Of those who

The killed were: Mrs. Miranda Hare, Kittanning, Pa., and 8-months-old
child of Lawrence Bartley of Allegheny, Pa.

found, are: Ella Vance, Wheeling,
Garvey, oil operator, Marietta, O., head crushed and back wrenched, will
probably die; W. N. Rose, Chicago, travels for Holbein Art company, right
arm broken; Michael J. Mahoney, Mc-Keesport, Pa., face cut and mashed;
Mrs. M. J. Mahoney, face cut and hip
hurt; E. W. Gilbert, Sharpsburg, Pa., thigh broken, head cut badly; J. N.
elbow broken; William Richardson,
and head; James W. Foster, Beaver falls, Pa., right foot broken, face and
back cut; W. J. Chapman, West Bridgewater, Pa., right leg and hand
broken; Charles Harkins, Altoona, Pa.,
right temple and scalp cut; P. R.
Rahm, Philadelphia, badly cut and bruised; George Perkins, conductor Pullman car, head cut, hip bruised;
George Crouse, 14 Charters street, Allegheny City, scalp wounds; Mrs.
George Crouse, scalp dislocated; Mrs.
Dr. A. R. Stifel, Forty-fourth
Jacob Zulanf, 22 Albert street, Pittsburg, left arm dislocated; Albert Gans, 58 Frankstown avenue, Pittsburgh, legs cut and bruised; Richard Gans, same address, both legs badly bruised; Mrs.
Louis Schuchert, 120 Howard street, Pittsburg, head cut and bruised, badly hurt; Prof. J. M. Frasher, principal Wheeling Business college, head and trunk cut and bruised; W. O. Hawley, Allegheny, face and nose crushed, arm
cut; Mrs. Dixon, Pittsburgh, badly cut
and back wrenched; Maud Vance, internal injuries and severe cuts; Mrs.
Malone, Allegheny, head cut, hurt internally; J. D. Stanton, mail agent, chest, shoulder and leg cut, bruised;
Mrs. Lejune, Allegheny, forehead
crushed; Perry Parker, colored, porter Pullman car, Cincinnati, cut on face; Mrs. Clark, Allegheny, shoulder dislocated; Mrs. Starr, daughter and granddaughter, painfully cut, Allegheny; M. Dixon and wife, Pittsburgh, painfully cut; John Renscher, Pittsburg, head and neck cut; C. M. Kiskaddon, Columbia, Pa., head bruised; Anthony McTighe, Pittsburgh, left leg badly cut.

These names probably do not cover more than half those who were more or less hurt, but able to get away. They scattered almost at once, and cannot nearly all be found. Many of those seriously hurt were able to leave for home.

Starvation Threatens the Whalers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—The schooner
Rosario arrived from the Arctic ocean, bringing 3,000 pounds of bone, the residue of a catch of five whales.
She brings confirmation of the news of a very poor catch. From the report of the Rosario it looks as if the entire
fleet would be caught in the ice. The
steam whalers are amply provided with
stores with which to spend another
winter in the ice, but the sailing vessels are poorly supplied and starvation
stares them in the face.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Consul Stephan, writing from Annoberg to the state department reports the developments of a keen competition in the
effort to introduce foreign goods into
the market. He says that a Boston manufacturer has established a house
hard to compete with the American goods.

Fighting a Fire In Indiana.

WHITING, Ind., Nov. 4.—The prairie
fires which have been burning south of here for the past two weeks, have finally
reached the border of this place.
The alarm of fire was given and the neighboring fire departments were
flames. About 2,000 acres between
here and Hammond have been burned.
Much of this territory is a kind of peat
and is still burning.

WILL RULE ARIFENIA.

The New Commission Announced—Armenians and Turks Still Rioting.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—The official announcement of the composition is as follows: President Cheik Effendi,
of the court of appeals; Djemal Bey,
manager of the bank of agriculture;
Caratheodori Effendi and Abdullah
Bey, councillors of state; Johanno Effendi, procurer of the imperial court of accounts; Djelal Bey, of the court of appeals; Dilber Effendi, legal councillor to the minister of finance.

Official telegrams received here state
that several persons were killed and
wounded at Diarbekir on Friday during some riots arising from an Arme-
Zeitoun Armenians attacked Lieutenant Hassan Agha, who with his wife
and children was traveling to Marash, and killed the whole family and rited

The American missionaries in Bitlis
have again complained to United States Minister Terrell that they are
Hon. Michael Herbert, the British
charge d'affaires, have therefore again
made a demand upon the porte to insure the protection of the Americans.

It is rumored that the Turks are still pillaging the Armenian shops in Erze-
room. Two hundred corpses have already been counted, victims of the recent riot.

The Armenian population of Anato-
lia are sending delegates to petition M.
Neldoff, the Russian Ambassador, to request Russia to temporarily occupy

TO DISFRANCHISE THE NEGRO.

sions In His Speech.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 4.—Senator Tillman's unparalleled indolence of the negro race in the constitutional convention was addressed to the north
as a defense of what South Carolina
proposes to do in order to maintain
white supremacy, in spite of the constitution of the United States. But
the most astonishing thing about this
great speech was its frank admissions.

"Do we intend to commit fraud under our new suffrage plan?" he said.
"I deny it. Fraud is illegal; we do not propose to do anything illegal. But
the 'understanding' clause will for two years allow the white registration officer to decide whether an illiterate shall vote or not. We intend no fraud—only unfairness, as it were; simply partiality or discrimination, nothing more. No white man will lose his vote.
That is what I meant when I said I
would drink from the poisoned chalice
for two years and then throw it away
forever."

FRICK'S BIG DEAL.

His Company Buys Out the McClure Coke
Company's Property.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 4.—The H. C. Frick Coke company has bought the property
of the McClure Coke company and has almost complete control of the great Connellsville coke industry.
For about $4,000,000 the McClure
company has disposed of its entire interest in the Connellsville region, consisting of about 2,500 coke ovens and
large coal properties in Fayette and Westmoreland counties.

No Naval Construction at Detroit.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Secretary Herbert has rendered his decision as to the
gunboats authorized to be built by the last congress. They go to different firms throughout the country, but none
to Detroit, the president sustaining Secretary Herbert's decision that it would be a violation of the treaty with Great Britain to build war vessels on
the lakes.

Negroes and Whites Fight.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 4.—In the outskirts of Clarksville, a mob of negroes
white, about 60 years old, was stabbed
twice, dying instantly. One other white man was stabbed and badly in-
Three negroes are in jail charged with
the murder.

The Katahdin a Failure.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—General Hyde
of the Bath Iron works announces that the ram Katahdin has failed to make the 17 knots required by contract. The navy department is endeavoring to find some means by which rejection of the boat can be avoided.

Ten Heretics Burned.

PACHUCA, Mexico, Nov. 4.—News
comes from Texacapa, a small town inhabited by Indians and mestizos (half-breeds), that ten persons have been burned there as heretics by order of the military town judge.

men have joined the insurgents from Matanzas province in the last 40 days.

the orange and lemon crop of Southern Italy for this season will be less than that age crop.

Dr. S. A. Briggs was flogging his 14-year-old son at Ingalls, O. T., because the boy did not heed orders about certain chores about the house, when young Briggs pulled a revolver and shot his father through the arm and body, from which Dr. Briggs will die.

A settlement has been effected at Kan-

The Dawes and Choctaw commissions have met and adjourned with no better understanding than before the meeting. The Dawes commission will soon return to Washington to make its report, which will undoubtedly be adverse to the present tribal relationship.
It is reported the commission will recommend the formation of a territorial form of government, the territory to be controlled exclusively by agents appointed by the United States government.

Rockefeller, announced to the trustees

ELECTIONS TOMORROW

Hot Fights on In Some of the States.

THE RESULTS VERY UNCERTAIN.

Dissatisfaction With Platforms and Candidates Has Mixed Up Matters—A Fierce Battle on in Ohio—The Contests in Pennsylvania and Other States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Tomorrow important elections will be held in a number of states, which will likely indicate how the land lays for the presidential contest next year. No one can safely predict the result, as dissatisfaction with platforms and candidates in many of the states has decidedly mixed up matters.

In Pennsylvania the voters will choose between the Republican and Democratic candidates for treasurer—B. J. Haywood and B. F. Meyers. The remaining contests will be confined to judgeships and county clerks.

In Ohio there is a hot fight on for the governorship between General Bushnell, Republican, ex-Governor Campbell, Democrat, and Coxey, Populist. A legislature will be chosen, which will re-elect Senator Brice or elect his successor.

A full state ticket will be voted for in Massachusetts. Governor Greenhalge, Republican, is a candidate for re-election, and his leading opponent is George F. Williams, Democrat.

In Kentucky Colonel Bradley, Republican, and General Hardin, the free silver Democrat, are making a rattling race for the Governorship. The legislators chosen will also say who will succeed Blackburn in the United States Senate.

In New Jersey the Republican candidate is John W. Griggs, and Alexander T. McGill the Democratic aspirant for gubernatorial honors.

The New York state ticket will contain a secretary of state, controller, treasurer, attorney general and a state engineer for terms of three years each; a judge of the court of appeals for 14 years; 12 judges of the supreme court for terms of 14 years; an entire legislature of 150 senators to serve three years, and 150 assemblymen to serve one year each. The senators chosen in November will participate in electing a successor to Senator Hill.

In Virginia all the members of the house of delegates will be chosen, and half of the state senate elected. The voters will participate in the election of a successor to Senator Daniel.

A full state ticket will be voted for in Iowa. General M. F. Drake is the Republican candidate for governor and Judge W. F. Cobb, the Democratic candidate. The legislature will designate the successor to Senator Allison.

Kansas will elect a chief justice of the supreme court, and a justice of the supreme court, and two regents for the State university will be chosen in Nebraska.

A full state ticket to serve four years; all the officers in the various counties, and a legislature that will elect a successor to Senator George will be chosen in Mississippi. A. J. McLaughlin is the Democratic candidate for governor and Frank Burkitt represents the opposition.

Utah will vote for a full ticket from governor down. John T. Caine heads the Democratic ticket, while Heber M. Wells champions the Republican cause.

In Maryland the offices to be filled are governor, attorney general and state comptroller. No election in recent years in this state has been contested with the bitterness and acrimony which has characterized the present fight, which is looked upon as the most crucial in the many contests in which Maryland's Democratic leader, United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman, has been engaged. The Democratic candidate for governor is John E. Hurst, and the Republican is Lloyd L. Hurd.

They Accuse a Priest.

BOURGES, France, Nov. 4.—The trial of the Marquis de Nave on the charge of murdering his stepson continues here accompanied by further sensational scenes. The two sons of the accused, Henri and Rene, declare that the evidence they gave at the magistrate's inquiry was dictated by Abbe Rousselot, who testified that the marquis had treated his sons brutally and that he had been guilty of immoral conduct. Henri also declared in the Abbe's presence that his mother was completely under the priest's influence.

Stuart Still Hopes For a Fight.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 4.—Dan Stuart has arrived home from Hot Springs and Little Rock. He said: "There is yet a chance for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to take place. I believe the men will fight if given a chance. The first thing to be done is to find a place for them. I shall go to El Paso today to look after matters in that locality. It will take some little time to arrange details, but I have hope of success."

Both pugns have been released, agreeing not to fight in Arkansas.

Accidentally Killed Himself.

ERIE, Pa., Nov. 4.—Jacob Heider, aged 17, has shot himself through the brain while hunting. He died an hour later. He handled the gun carelessly.

FATAL USE OF COAL-OIL

A Woman Killed and Her Husband and Family Barely Escape.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—Mrs. Helen Langdorf of 4 Patton street has been burned to death and her husband and children barely escaped from the house, which was destroyed, together with another house adjoining.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed Mrs. Langdorf attempted to start the fire with coal-oil and that an explosion resulted. The dead body of the woman was found on a side porch soon after the family had been aroused.

Chittenden Favors No Route.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 4.—The survey for the proposed Ohio ship canal has been completed, and the report is being rapidly formulated to present to the authorities at Washington. Captain H. M. Chittenden of the United States engineering corps, in speaking of the matter said: "I expect to have the report entirely completed by the first of the year, and will present it to congress as soon as possible. The three routes surveyed—from Cleveland to Marietta, Sandusky to Portsmouth, and from Cleveland to Cincinnati—are all first class routes, and would prove an inestimable benefit, but I am in favor of no particular course of way. I do not care which route is selected."

A Prisoner Sues a Mayor.

XENIA, O., Nov. 4.—Trouble has broken out at Spring Valley, a small town west of this city, culminating in Moses A. Walton, one of the most prominent citizens of the county, bringing suit for $5,000 damages against George Truman, late mayor of the village. The plaintiff alleges that he was arrested on a pretended charge of disorderly conduct, had a trial at which he was not present and was adjudged guilty and fined, with no opportunity for defense, and, refusing to pay the fine, was imprisoned one night.

He was a Knight Templar and a Scottish Rite Mason, belonging at Columbus and Cincinnati.

Persecuted by Firebugs.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—The police are puzzled over attempts of incendiaries to destroy the Speed Home for Infants in this city. The building was set on fire three times Saturday and four times Sunday. Some of the attendants say they saw a man looking from an attic window, and attempts to discover the person who set these fires have failed. There are 23 children in the home, and the attendants are in a state of panic.

Invalids Escape From a Fire.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—The Oak Ridge sanitarium at Green Springs, O., a four-story brick structure, 100 feet square, has been destroyed by fire. The 40 guests, most of whom were invalids, all escaped, many of them having to be carried from the burning building. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $100,000, with an insurance of $100,000. The building was owned by Johnson & Cobb of this city.

Fifty-Six Indictments Against Lewis.

DAYTON, O., Nov. 4.—Among the indictments by the grand jury are 56 returned against Zachary T. Lewis, a bond forger, charging forgery of bonds negotiated with banks here. The forged bonds purport to be genuine paper, issued by Butler, Adams and Miami counties and by the board of education of Tippecanoe.

For a Shorter Campaign.

Dr. Gotwald Stricken.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 4.—Dr. L. A. Gotwald of Wittenberg college has been stricken with paralysis. It is believed he will recover.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

By the breaking of a rotten cornice, Frank Vigus, a painter of Portsmouth was thrown from the roof of the I. O. O. F. building, a distance of 50 feet, receiving injuries that will prove fatal.

The Pillsbury Flour company of Minneapolis has brought suit to restrain David Kirk, proprietor of the Eagle Mills of Findlay, from putting up flour in the plaintiff's sacks, or in such as are used by them. A temporary injunction was allowed.

A political meeting at May Hill, was broken up by a fight, in which clubs and pistols were used. A young man named Johnson was shot in the right leg. Dave Burnett had his nose broken, and Joseph Kellogg and Bill Turner, who started the disturbance were both badly injured.

A 100-barrel oil well has been struck on the Clint Payne lease, on Cliff Creek, near Marietta, and a new well on the Uhl farm, which had been considered dry. This well is flowing into two tanks at the rate of ten barrels per hour. The oil developments are greatly retarded by the dry weather and lack of water.

The establishment of telephone service in the Hocking valley over a line from Lancaster to Athens and the inauguration of long distance telephone with the outside world by the way of Columbus, was celebrated by a public demonstration at Hotel Martin under the direction of W. Nothing since has been heard of him.

ELECTIONS TOMORROW
Hot Fights on In Some of the States.

Dissatisfaction With Platforms and Candidates Has Mixed Up Matters—A Fierce Battle on in Ohio—The Contests in Pennsylvania and Other States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Tomorrow important elections will be held in a number of states, which will likely indicate how the land lays for the presidential contest next year. No one can safely predict the result, as dissatisfaction with platforms and candidates in many of the states has decidedly mixed up matters.

In Pennsylvania the voters will choose between the Republican and Democratic candidates for treasurer—B. J. Haywood and B. F. Meyers. The remaining contests will be confined to judgeships and county tickets.

In Ohio there is a hot fight on for the governorship between General Campbell, Republican, and General Campbell, Democrat, and Coxey, Populist. A legislature will be chosen, which will elect Senator Brice or elect his successor.

A full state ticket will be voted for in Massachusetts. Governor Greenidge, Republican, is a candidate for re-election, and his leading opponent is George F. Williams, Democrat.

In Kentucky Colonel Bradley, Republican, and General Hardin, the free silver Democrat, are making a rattling race for the Governorship. The legislators chosen will also say who will succeed Blackburn in the United States Senate.

The New York state ticket will contain a secretary of state, controller, treasurer, attorney general and a state engineer for terms of three years each; a judge of the court of appeals for 14 years; 12 judges of the supreme court for terms of 14 years; an entire legislature of 50 senators to serve three years, and 150 assemblymen to serve two years each. The senators chosen in November will participate in electing a successor to Senator Hill.

In Virginia all the members of the house of delegates will be chosen, and half of the state senate elected. The voters will participate in the election of a successor to Senator Daniel.

A full state ticket will be voted for in Iowa. General M. F. Drake is the Republican candidate for governor and judge W. F. Kobb, the Democratic candidate. The legislature will designate the successor to Senator Allison.

Kansas will elect a chief justice of the supreme court, and a justice of the supreme court, and two regents for the State university will be chosen in Nebraska.

A full state ticket to serve four years; all the officers in the various counties, and a legislature that will elect a successor to Senator George will be chosen in Mississippi. A. J. McLauria is the Democratic candidate for governor and Frank Burkitt represents the opposition.

In Maryland the offices to be filled are governor, attorney general and state comptroller. No election in recent years in this state has been contested with the bitterness and acrimony which has characterized the present fight, which is looked upon as the most crucial in the many contests in which Maryland's Democratic leader, United States Senator Arthur P. Gorman, has been engaged. The Democratic candidate for governor is John E. Hurst, and the Republican is Lloyd Lowndes.

BOURGEOIS, France, Nov. 4.—The trial of the Marquis de Nave on the charge of murdering his stepson continues here accompanied by further sensational scenes. The two sons of the accused, Henri and Rene, declare that the evidence they gave at the magistrate's inquiry was dictated by Abbe Kesselot, who testified that the marquis had treated his sons brutally and that he had been guilty of immoral conduct. Henri also declared in the Abbe's presence that his mother was completely under the priest's influence.

Stuart Still Hopes For a Fight.
DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 4.—Dan Stuart has arrived here from Hot Springs and Little Rock. He said: "There is yet a chance for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight to take place. I believe the men will fight if given a chance. The first thing to be done is to find a place for them. I shall go to El Paso today to look after matters in that locality. It will take some little time to arrange details, but I have hope of success." Both pugilists have been released, agreeing not to fight in Arkansas.

Chittenden Favors No Route.
COLUMBUS, Nov. 4.—The survey for the proposed Ohio ship canal has been completed, and the report is being rapidly formulated to present to the authorities at Washington. Captain H. M. Chittenden of the United States engineering corps, in speaking of the matter said: "I expect to have the report entirely completed by the first of the year, and will present it to congress as soon as possible. He was a Knight Templar and a Scottish Rite Mason, belonging at Columbus and Cincinnati.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—The police are puzzled over attempts of incendiaries to destroy the Speed Home for Infants in this city. The building was set on fire three times Saturday and four times Sunday. There are 23 children in the home, and the attendants are in a state of panic.

Invalids Escape From a Fire.
CLEVELAND, Nov. 4.—The Oak Ridge sanitarium at Green Springs, O., a four-story brick structure, 100 feet square, has been destroyed by fire. The 40 guests, most of whom were invalids, all escaped, many of them having to be carried from the burning building. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $10,000, with an insurance of $10,000. The building was owned by Johnson & Cobb of this city.

East End Sewer Pipe Works Shut Down.

Knowles, Taylor & Anderson's sewer pipe works in the East End closed down this morning. Manager Weeks was asked how long the plant would remain closed and answered, "ask me something easy; people have quit burying sewer pipe and the plant will be closed for an indefinite length of time—probably until spring." This news will be received with regret, owing to the large number of employees that will be thrown out of work during the coming winter.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhoea of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

DIAMOND DIGGINGS.

PRECAUTIONS AGAINST THEFT IN SOUTH AFRICAN MINES.

But In Spite of All This Stealing Still Continues—The Decline of the Town of Kimberley—Population Has Flown to the Gold Fields About Johannesburg.

"The South African diamond mines are worked almost entirely by native laborers—the Kaffirs, Zulus, Hottentots and the rest," said a diamond merchant. "These receive good wages, about $125 per month, and are hired for a term of three months. During this period they are confined in compounds located on the edge of the mines. The compounds consist of rows of buildings of corrugated iron, forming a hollow square, surrounded by a high board fence and covering several acres of ground. Within this corral are stores, a hospital, boarding houses and other conveniences. Wood and water are furnished free, but no alcoholic liquors are allowed. During their term of service the natives are not allowed to have any communication with the outside world and are under a system of close personal surveillance in order to prevent the theft of diamonds. When they come up from the mine shaft, they are carefully searched, and many ingenious methods are adopted to reduce the loss from this source to a minimum.

"Notwithstanding all that is done, however, the theft of diamonds still continues. It is estimated that from 10 to 20 per cent of the diamonds found are stolen every year. In order to prevent this a very stringent law was passed, providing that all rough diamonds should be registered with the detective bureau of the government as soon as they were found, and that every man who sold a diamond must give with it a certificate of registry.

"The penalty for giving an unregistered rough diamond is seven years on the Cape Town breakwater, and the mere fact of possession is prima facie evidence and will secure conviction. So it happens that if one laborer wants to do up another he manages to slip a rough diamond into the other laborer's coat, or into his room, and then tells the police to keep a sharp lookout. Of course the police make a search, the contraband stone is found, and the man is in for a term of seven years. A great many unjust sentences have unquestionably been secured in this way, but despite the opposition to the law the company is powerful enough to keep it in force.

"There are other diamond fields outside of the Kimberley district, but they are difficult to work and are mainly exploited by diggers working on their own account. The total product is not large, and the work is very arduous, the diggers being mostly men who have been thrown out of work by the consolidation of the Kimberley mines into one vast corporation and the subsequent restriction of production. This latter, by the way, has had a curious effect upon the town of Kimberley itself. As late as four years ago Kimberley had a population of 25,000 or 30,000 people. It was laid out for a great city and enjoyed for a time a big boom.

"Fine brick blocks and residences were built, hotels and theaters and waterworks and everything pertaining to a modern city. Now a good third of these places are empty, and Kimberley is as dead as a New England town that is dependent upon a single mill. All the supplies and machinery for the mines are now bought of course by a single company, so that more than two-thirds of the business of the town is gone. There is nothing there to sustain a town except the mine, and with the opening up of the goldfields much of the population moved on north to Johannesburg.

"Although the existence of gold in the Transvaal had been known for years, yet the Boers disliked the invading prospectors and for a time kept them out by law. Afterward a more liberal spirit prevailed, and the Boer government offered reward for the finding of paying goldfields. But it was not until 1882 that the now celebrated gold bearing reef in which the bulk of South African gold is found was discovered, and it was not until four years later that the opening of the celebrated Sheba mine and its phenomenal yield, gave rise to a fever. Then prospectors poured in from Kimberley and the Cape, coming by push cart, wagon, horseback or on foot. In a year there were 10,000 persons in the district. The center of the excitement was the little town of Barberton, but this section was soon thrown into the shade by the discoveries on the Witwatersrand. But while the excitement lasted the De Kaaap fields, as they were known, had their day, and 96 companies, with a nominal capital of $155,000,000, were floated, and many of the shares sold at a tremendous premium. Most of these mines are now abandoned, though the Sheba mine is still a big producer."—New York Sun.

THINNING FRUIT.

It Makes a More Profitable Crop and Saves the Trees.

The next essential thing after you have got your fruit started, says Mr. J. E. Hale, the Connecticut fruit grower, is a judicious thinning of it. I believe the thinning of apples should begin when they first begin to bear. A well planted and well fed tree will begin to bear early. Only let it bear a little. Allow some of the strength to go into the development of the fruit buds for next year. Next year thin pretty closely; then by and by you will build up an orchard that will have no off years in it. There isn't an off year. It is because the apples are in the hands of an off man. Thinning constantly would bring it into constant bearing.

It is seed growing that exhausts the vitality. There are no more seeds in a large fruit than in a small one, and a large one doesn't take any more vitality out of a tree. If a Keiffer pear tree has on it a thousand pears, and you take off

Waterproof collars and cuffs that you can clean yourself by simply wiping off with a wet sponge. The genuine look exactly like linen and every piece is marked this way:

They are made by covering a linen collar or cuff with "celluloid," and are the only waterproof goods made with an interlining, and the only goods that can stand the wear and give perfect satisfaction. Never wilt and not effected by moisture. Try them and you will never regret it. Ask for those with above trade mark and refuse any imitations. If your dealer does not have them we will mail you a sample direct on receipt of price. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair. State whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

The Celluloid Company, 427-429 Broadway, New York.

500 of them, the balance will weigh as much as the whole of them and bring more money, weakening the tree only half as much. Our rule for thinning peaches is not to leave one within four inches of another. This covers the ground with green fruit and looks like destruction, but at the end of the season there are more bushels than there would have been.

Thin by hand. Put stepladders under the trees and put boys on them whose bump of destructiveness is large, and tell them to go ahead. We begin when the peaches are three-quarters of an inch in diameter, and take everything that is curculio stung and diseased. These we cart away and burn. The rest that are taken off are dropped on the ground and left there. In future our three or four year old peach trees shall not bear over 250 peaches; our four or five year old trees not over 300, and full grown trees not over 500. That means six inches apart; 500 peaches on a tree will make six to eight baskets of fancy fruit. Three thousand peaches to a tree won't make more, nor sell for more money, and the trees are ruined.—Hartford Times.

May Get a Raise Later.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 4.—At the Clearfield region bituminous coal miners' massmeeting at Ramey, the committee which had been sent to Philadelphia, reported that a conference had been held with the representatives of the Berwind-White coal company but that it failed to secure an advance in the mining rate, and also failed to secure a promise from the company to attend a joint conference of operators and miners, provided such a conference should be called. The company assured the committee that an increase was probable later.

"These receive good wages, about $125 per month, and are hired for a term of three months. During this period they are confined in compounds located on the edge of the mines. The compounds consist of rows of buildings of corrugated iron, forming a hollow square, surrounded by a high board fence and covering several acres of ground. Within this corral are stores, a hospital, boarding houses and other conveniences. Wood and water are furnished free, but no alcoholic liquors are allowed. During their term of service the natives are not allowed to have any communication with the outside world and are under a system of close personal surveillance in order to prevent the theft of diamonds. When they come up from the mine shaft, they are carefully searched, and many ingenious methods are adopted to reduce the loss from this source to a minimum.

"Notwithstanding all that is done, however, the theft of diamonds still continues. It is estimated that from 10 to 20 per cent of the diamonds found are stolen every year. In order to prevent this a very stringent law was passed, providing that all rough diamonds should be registered with the detective bureau of the government as soon as they were found, and that every man who sold a diamond must give with it a certificate of registry.

"The penalty for having an unregistered rough diamond is seven years on the Cape Town breakwater, and the mere fact of possession is prima facie evidence and will secure conviction. So it happens that if one laborer wants to do up another he manages to slip a rough diamond into the other laborer's coat, or into his room, and then tells the police to keep a sharp lookout. Of course the police make a search, the contraband stone is found, and the man is in for a term of seven years. A great many unjust sentences have unquestionably been secured in this way, but despite the opposition to the law the company is powerful enough to keep it in force.

"There are other diamond fields outside of the Kimberley district, but they are difficult to work and are mainly exploited by diggers working on their own account. The total product is not large, and the work is very arduous, the diggers being mostly men who have been thrown out of work by the consolidation of the Kimberley mines into one vast corporation and the subsequent restriction of production. This latter, by the way, has had a curious effect upon the town of Kimberley itself. As late as four years ago Kimberley had a population of 25,000 or 30,000 people. It was laid out for a great city and enjoyed for a time a big boom.

"Fine brick blocks and residences were built, hotels and theaters and waterworks and everything pertaining to a modern city. Now a good third of these places are empty, and Kimberley is as dead as a New England town that is dependent upon a single mill. All the supplies and machinery for the mines are now bought of course by a single company, so that more than two-thirds of the business of the town is gone. There is nothing there to sustain a town except the mine, and with the opening up of the goldfields much of the population moved on north to Johannesburg.

"Although the existence of gold in the Transvaal had been known for years, yet the Boers disliked the invading prospectors and for a time kept them out by law. Afterward a more liberal spirit prevailed, and the Boer government offered reward for the finding of paying goldfields. But it was not until 1882 that the now celebrated gold bearing reef in which the bulk of South African gold is found was discovered, and it was not until four years later that the opening of the celebrated Sheba mine and its phenomenal yield, gave rise to a fever. Then prospectors poured in from Kimberley and the Cape, coming by push cart, wagon, horseback or on foot. In a year there were 10,000 persons in the district. The center of the excitement was the little town of Barberton, but this section was soon thrown into the shade by the discoveries on the Witwatersrand. But while the excitement lasted the De Kaap fields, as they were known, had their day, and 96 companies, with a nominal capital of $155,000,000, were floated, and many of the shares sold at a tremendous premium. Most of these mines are now abandoned, though the Sheba mine is still a big producer."—New York Sun.

THINNING FRUIT.

It Makes a More Profitable Crop and Saves the Trees.

The next essential thing after you have got your fruit started, says Mr. J. E. Hale, the Connecticut fruit grower, is a judicious thinning of it. I believe the thinning of apples should begin when they first begin to bear. A well planted and well fed tree will begin to bear early. Only let it bear a little. Allow some of the strength to go into the development of the fruit buds for next year. Next year thin pretty closely; then by and by you will build up an orchard that will have no off years in it. There isn't an off year. It is because the apples are in the hands of an off man. Thinning constantly would bring it into constant bearing.

It is seed growing that exhausts the vitality. There are no more seeds in a large fruit than in a small one, and a large one doesn't take any more vitality out of a tree. If a Keiffer pear tree has on it a thousand pears, and you take off

Waterproof collars and cuffs that you can clean yourself by simply wiping off with a wet sponge. The genuine look exactly like linen and every piece is marked this way:

They are made by covering a linen collar or cuff with "celluloid," and are the only waterproof goods made with an interlining, and the only goods that can stand the wear and give perfect satisfaction. Never wilt and not affected by moisture. Try them and you will never regret it. Ask for those with above trade mark and refuse any imitations. If your dealer does not have them we will mail you a sample direct on receipt of price. Collars 25c. each. Cuffs 50c. pair. State whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.

500 of them, the balance will weigh as much as the whole of them and bring more money, weakening the tree only half as much. Our rule for thinning peaches is not to leave one within four inches of another. This covers the ground with green fruit and looks like destruction, but at the end of the season there are more bushels than there would have been.

Thin by hand. Put stepladders under the trees and put boys on them whose bump of destructiveness is large, and tell them to go ahead. We begin when the peaches are three-quarters of an inch in diameter, and take everything that is curculio stung and diseased. These we cut away and burn. The rest that are taken off are dropped on the ground and left there. In future our three or four year old peach trees shall not bear over 250 peaches; our four or five year old trees not over 300, and full grown trees not over 500. That means six inches apart; 500 peaches on a tree will make six to eight bushels of fancy fruit. Three thousand peaches to a tree won't make more, nor sell for more money, and the trees are ruined.—Hartford Times.

May Get a Raise Later.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 4.—At the Clearfield region bituminous coal miners' mass meeting at Ramey, the committee which had been sent to Philadelphia, reported that a conference had been held with the representatives of the Berwind-White coal company but that it failed to secure an advance in the mining rate and also failed to secure a promise from the company to attend a joint conference of operators and miners, provided such a conference should be called. The company assured the committee that an increase was probable later.
